Please note: The Chow Chow Breed Council Breeders list is intended as guidance to help prospective purchasers find registered reputable breeders. The Breed Council recommends that prospective owners conduct their own thorough research into the breed and the breeder before purchasing their puppy. Prospective purchasers are able to search for the parents of a puppy and health test results for any dog that is registered on the Kennel Club's Breed Register either by its registered name, registration number or stud book number. The link to the Kennel Club Breed Register can be found at the bottom of the "Health Test Results" section on the Breed Council website, or by visiting the Kennel Club "Mate Select" website.
